„GENDER AT THE BORDER II“
for PhD students from Central European University, Budapest, and Vienna University in the field of Gender Studies

3rd to 6th May 2007

Purbach am Neusiedler See at the Hungarian/Austrian border

The academic workshop “Gender at the Border II” is a research cooperation and networking project between the Centre for Advanced Gender Studies, University of Vienna, Austria, and the Department of Gender Studies, Central European University of Budapest, Hungary. It takes place from 3rd to 6th May in “Purbach am Neusiedlersee” which is situated at the Hungarian/Austrian border. The workshop is financed by the Austrian Federal Ministry for Education, Science and Culture.

This workshop brings together 6 Professors (3 from Central European University, Budapest, and 3 from Vienna University) and 14 PhD students (7/7) with research interests in Gender Studies. The junior scholars will present and discuss their ongoing research projects involving a Gender Studies perspective (in English) and will relate them to current issues in the field of Gender Studies.

Junior scholars (PhD students) with an interest in actively contributing (with written paper, oral presentation and verbal comment on another paper in English) are invited to apply for a participation in the workshop “Gender at the Border II” until January 15th, 2007.
